CRITERIA AND SUBMISSION INFORMATION

AGENCY OF THE YEAR AWARDS HARD COPY SUBMISSION

CATEGORIES

Advertising Agency

Open to any creative agency in Australia or New Zealand. Full service, strategic, advertising, digital or other specialist agencies are all eligible to enter and the assessment will be based upon the agency's area of expertise. Where an Australian agency has more than one office, the entry should be for the group operation.

Branding and Design Agency - New

Open to any agency in Australia or New Zealand. Both stand-alone agencies and departments of larger agencies or organisations are eligible to enter. Where an agency has more than one office, entries in this category should represent the agency's offering across Australia and New Zealand.

Direct Response/Performance Agency - New

Open to any agency in Australia or New Zealand. Both stand-alone agencies and departments of larger agencies or organisations are eligible to enter. Where an agency has more than one office, entries in this category should represent the agency's offering across Australia and New Zealand.

Emerging Agency

Open to any communications agency in Australia or New Zealand. Full service, advertising, media, digital, PR, promotional or other specialist agencies are all eligible to enter and the assessment will be based upon achievements within the agency's chosen area of expertise. The agency must have started a new original business after August 31, 2013 and cannot be part of another agency or group.

Experiential Agency

Open to any agency or agency department in Australia and NZ involved in delivering marketing that brings consumers to directly experience brands first hand in a memorable and relevant way.

Independent Agency

Open to any agency in Australia or New Zealand that is 100% independently owned, i.e., not owned or part owned by a larger agency group.

Media Agency

Open to any agency in Australia or New Zealand involved in media planning, buying and/or strategy. Where an agency has more than one office, the entry should be for the group operation. The jury will be seeking evidence of good media planning, new business success and client retention.

PR Agency

Open to any agency in Australia or New Zealand involved in delivering PR services. Where an agency has more than one office, the entry should be for the group operation. The judges will be looking for evidence of a full range of PR capabilities including an understanding of the importance of digital media on PR issues.

Production Company - New

Open to any production company in Australia or New Zealand. Both stand-alone companies and departments of larger agencies or organisations are eligible to enter. Where a company has more than one office, entries in this category should represent the company's offering across Australia and New Zealand.

Research Agency - New

Open to any agency in Australia or New Zealand. Both stand-alone agencies and departments of larger agencies or organisations are eligible to enter. Where an agency has more than one office, entries in this category should represent the agency's offering across Australia and New Zealand.

State Agency (NSW, VIC, QLD and Other States/Territories/NZ)

Open to any agency in Australia. Full service, strategic, advertising, media, digital, or other specialist agencies are all eligible to enter, and the assessment will be based upon achievements within the agency's area of expertise. Where the agency is part of a larger network, the entry should represent the output of a single office. Different offices within the same network may enter. Separate shortlists will be selected for NSW, Victoria, Queensland and the other states/territories/New Zealand.

B&T Agency of the year

Awarded by B&T to one of the winners from the Agency of the Year categories. This category can't be entered.

CRITERIA

Case studies:

Supply 2 case studies - Each case study should explain, in a maximum of 500 words or less, how the agency helped a client during the period in question. A jury will be looking for clear evidence of strategic thinking, ability to deliver against a brief and evidence of success.

Body of work:

In no more than 500 words, provide the information that best demonstrates the breadth of the agency's abilities within the category under consideration. In the advertising agency categories this should consist of no more than 10 individual pieces of advertising, submitted on USB or via online link.

Agency culture:

In no more than 500 words, explain what makes the agency distinctive. Judges will be looking for commitment to staff development and retention, how the agency has innovated and evidence of the impact the agency's culture has on its output.

Commercial success:

Judges will be looking for evidence of the agency's commercial success including new business wins, client retention, revenue and profit growth. Where regulatory or confidentiality issues preclude offering specific figures, percentages are acceptable. This should be articulated in no more than 500 words. Figures and claims should be accompanied by a letter from the agency's financial director or equivalent confirming their accuracy. All judges will sign an NDA prior to judging.

Impact and momentum:

How has the agency adapted to the changing market? How has the agency's behaviour moved the industry? What is the agency's vision for the future? Examples might include the adoption of innovative techniques or tools, diversification into new business areas, setting the agenda through new research or commitment to participation in industry forums. No more than 500 words.

SCORING

Case study 1: 10%

Case study 2: 10%

Body of work: 20%

Impact and momentum: 20%

SUBMISSION PROCESS:

All Agency of the Year categories are to be submitted following these steps:

- Register the entry and submit payment via our online portal: <https://bandt.awardsplatform.com>
- Your online registration will be assigned with an ID number. Please ensure that your hard copy submission includes your ID number prominently.
- Hard copy of your submission to be posted to the B&T office:
Attn: Vivian Luo – B&T Awards
Level 2, 231 Commonwealth St, Surry Hills NSW 2010

SUBMISSION FORMAT:

1. Jurors will be assessing many entries so please keep them as concise as possible. Those that make it to the shortlist stage will have the opportunity to provide further information in their presentations to the jury.
2. All written entries should be supplied in A4 format only and be bound. They should not exceed the word counts specified for each category.
3. Supporting Material - Entries may be accompanied by supporting material. Any supporting material, including print work, screen grabs, radio ads, TVCs, and photographs need to be high-res where applicable (300 dpi) and must all be submitted on a single USB with each piece of work clearly labelled. For online work, a live URL together with username and password if necessary should be supplied in the written portion of the entry. In the case of DM work, physical examples will be accepted. Please note that categories may have different juries, so supporting material should be supplied for each category entered.
4. A total of ten sets of the written entries should be provided for each category.
5. A total of ten sets of supporting material on USB should also be provided for each entry where necessary and clearly marked with the name of the category and submitting company's name. The written portion of the entry can also be included on each USB in addition to the ten hard copies supplied.
6. Failure to supply supporting material in the correct format may result in disqualification.

JUDGING:

Second round presentations: 14th October, Sydney

A key element of the B&T Awards is the finalist presentations and the ability of judges to question those about their entry, agency, work and results over and above what is contained in the written entry. Each shortlisted entrant is given 30 minutes of which 20 minutes is devoted to the presentation followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers from the judges. Sydney-based teams are required to present in person, however teams from interstate and New Zealand, have the option to submit a 15 minute presentation, shot in a single unedited take from a fixed camera. A representative from the shortlisted team will then be expected to be available for a telephone conference immediately after the jury is shown the presentation.

The Jury:

The jury for each category will be carefully selected to include senior marketers, industry consultants, and people from related, but not competing sectors. There will be no representatives from directly competing agencies on the panel. All judges are required to sign a non-disclosure declaration ahead of judging. Any judge that has a conflict of interest with a particular entry will be required to declare it and will not be allowed to score on that entry.
